SOUVENIRS

-OF-

THE PALAIS ROYAL'S

NINTH GRAND SUMMER

OPENING

-FOR-

ALL THIS WEEK!

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

From the "Post" of May 29:

"Another great feature is the periodical

'opening days.' At the commencement of each season a grand 'opening' of new styles

is advertised, and the original Lerner does

what merchants generally content—

he offers the new and desirable styles at actual cost price."

From the "Republican" of May 30:

"Such occasions are worthy of record,

for the new styles are exhibited on a grand scale. The souvenirs of the 'opening'

this year are unusually attractive."

From the "Star" of May 28:

"The established reputation of Mr. Lis-

ner gives the assurance that the souvenirs

of the occasion will not be inferior to past

'Opening Days.'"

From the "Republican" of June 1:

"The store was crowded yesterday, notwithstanding the rain."

SPECIAL NOTICE.

For want of space list of Souvenirs is not given here. Please refer to the "Evening

Star," where you will find an entire column devoted to "Opening Souvenirs." For

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, and SATURDAY

the Suit Department will be especially attractive. A manufacturer's stock of White Suits for Children, Misses, and

Ladies will be offered at prices the surprise

of the "Opening." The Palais Royal respectfully thanks its patrons for the overwhelming patronage of the last few days,

and trusts to claim the most triumphant summer "Opening" yet recorded. The

"Opening" will positively terminate Saturday, June 4, at 6 p. m.

Take elevator to 3d floor for suits.

All Out of Proportion

Like some of the Clothing sold in these days.

Some manufacturers cut their garments all alike, without any regard as to the figure of the man who may wear it.

The Wanamaker Clothing is cut in three different lengths for the same size breast measure, and in some sizes in four.

First—The "long," with long waist and sleeves

and high in neck.

Second—The "medium," shorter in all proportions.

Third—The "short," for stout men with short

necks.

Fourth—The "extra short," for corpulent

men.

By this means four men measuring the same

over the breast—one very tall and slender,

one very short and stout, and the others between—can be equally well fitted.

We are the only house in Washington selling these goods.

E. B. BARNUM & CO., 931 Penna. Ave.

Who is the Man That's Hurt?

HE THAT HOLLERS.

Several clothing firms are throwing slurs at us; but let them do it, we thank them for it. It's the cheapest advertising we can get. We are not saying a word, but going right ahead, selling lots of clothing ALLER SAMME. We don't care how much they fire their guns at us; the more they fire the more clothing we sell. If we were not selling lots of clothing, you would not hear their jealous cry. Some clothesmen think they own the world, and no one has a right to deal with any one but them. The world is wide, the city large, the stores numerous; but all we ask is a little slice, and we get it. You never hear men crying unless they are hurt, no doubt. Our Great Banner Sale is taking sales from many of them. We are sorry for it; but our large sales must come from some one, and if we can't get it from people that deal outside of the city, how can we help taking trade from other stores? We draw trade from Georgetown, Alexandria, Virginia, and Maryland, all seeking bargains at our Great Sale. They get the bargains; we get the money. Prices no object. Custom and money we are after. We give you the greatest bargain of your life at our Great Banner Sale of

Men's and Boys' Clothing.

Bargains in everything for Men and Boys. Over 2,000 pairs of Men's and Boys' Pants at less than cost of the goods. Don't buy a dollar's worth of clothing till you come and see us at the
